

I this talk I will report on the state-of-the-art predictions of the electromagnetic counterparts of gravitational wave events detectable by the O4 run of the LVK collaboration, and present the organization and activity of the ENGRAVE collaboration for their identification and characterisation. I will take the opportunity to show the first campaigns carried out by ENGRAVE during the beginning of the O4 run, if any.